THE QUICK ANSWERS

How does it get to them? –

By email, with your note on it, either straight away or on the date you picked.

What can they spend it on? –

Anything in the store. If they find something that costs more than the card, they pay the difference at checkout.

Can they check what's left on it? –

Yes. The email links to their card, with the code and the balance, and whatever they don't spend stays on it.
